IV. Statement of Claim:

State here as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant is involved, including names, dates, and places. Do not give any legal arguments or cite any cases or statutes. If you intend to allege a number of related claims, number and set forth each claim in a separate paragraph. (Use as much space as you need. Attach extra sheets if necessary.)

(1.) The Plaintiffs are unconstitutionally imprisoned beyond their release date. The existing custom and practice of Defendants that specific practice or procedure created an unreasonable risk of prison overstay. Plaintiffs Civil Right suit against Defendants acting under color of State law to be against Defendants in their individual capacities 42 U.S.C.A. 1983 .

(2.) Plaintiffs claim that Defendants Illinois Department of Corrections Director Roger E. Walker Jr. and IDOC Chief Record Officer Glenn M. Jackson are violating the Plaintiffs Eighth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Constitutional Rights by incarceration of an individual beyond the term of imprisonment imposed by the Illinois Circuit Courts sentencing order is quinessentially punitive to pose a Constitutional violation. Detention beyond the original Circuit Court sentencing order termination of a sentence do constitute cruel and unusual punishment if its the result of Defendants deliberate indifference to the prisoners liberty interest. Anything more that a de minimis incarceration beyond a prisoner proper sentence satisfies the Defendants requirement of cruel and unusual punishment and due process violations. This assertion seems to ignore the FINDING BY THE Illinois Courts that an error of law has occurred by the Illinois Department of Correction Defendants misinterpretation calculations sheet of all Plaintiffs incorrect sentence ( see exhibit 2,6 )

- (3.) That the propriety of the plaintiffs Circuit Courts original sentence is a matter of law. Where the constitutional rights violations by Illinois Department of Corrections Defendants is so substantial that it affected the plaintiffs due process and do create cruel and unusual punishment of the U.S.C.A.8th and 14th amendment right.
- (4.) That plaintiffs complaint claim on Parole/MSR term must be served INCLUSIVE of a term of imprisonment. The claim is inconsistent with the correct requirement of due process,where parole/MSR is NOT A SENTENCE imposed by the Circuit Court original sentence order or an extension of the original trial Circuit Court sentence imposed. Where each defendants of Illinois Department of Corrections applied Parole/MSR incorrectly and violates plaintiffs State and Federal 8th and 14th Constitutional Rights (see exhibit 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,)

- (5.) That plaintiffs claim the fully negotiated guilty plea, jury trial, Bench trial, and open plea violates plaintiff due process rights that plaintiff will demonstrate and that each defendants had knowledge of substantial risk. (see exhibit 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,)
- (6.) That plaintiffs claim the Defendants Illinois Department of Correction Director Roger E. Walker jr. and Illinois Department of Correction Chief Record Officer Glenn M. Jackson are imposing a conflict of law that fully created a violation of Plaintiffs United State Constitutional 8th and 14th amendment right that need protected from defendants unjust action of incorrect misinterpretation application for parole/MSR law provision. Where defendants are applying parole/MSR term as a INDETERMINATED sentence structure that was enacted by Illinois Legislature law before Dec.28,1977 sentence structure. Plaintiffs are now recieving by mandated law a determinated sentence structure set sentence. Meaning that plaintiffs sentence order of the Illinois Circuit Courts CANNOT BE INCREASED, only by the State three Courts. The Illinois Department of Corrections Defendants are interpreting State statute provisions incorrcetly that create serious Constitutional Right violations of plaintiffs 8th and 14th amendment rights. (see exhibit 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9, )
- (7.) Plaintiffs claims that defendants of the Illinois Department of Correction are MISINTERPRETING the Plaintiffs sentencing order of the COOK COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT AND ALL OTHER SURROUNDING ILLINOIS COUNTY CIRCUIT COURTHOUSE IMPOSED SENTENCE.

Requiring plaintiffs to serve a parole/MSR term upon after the Circuit Courts original MAXIMUM completion of plaintiffs jury trial, Bench trial, negotiated guilty plea, and open plea judicial imposed sentence served. The defendants applies parole/MSR as an afterthought after 100% of the Illinois Circuit Courts set jury trial, negotiated guilty plea, Bench trial, and open plea sentence has been served. The Defendants Mr. Walker jr. and Mr. Jackson DOES NOT INCORPORATE the parole/MSR term within the plaintiffs original sentence order imposed by the Illinois Circuit Courts, procedures created an UNREASONABLE RISK of overstay deprived plaintiffs of their Constitutional Rights under color of State law (see exhibit 1,2, 3,4,5,6,7,8,9, ..) ..

- (8.) Plaintiffs Civil Right suit against defendants acting under color of State law to be against Illinois Department of Correction and defendants in their individual capacity that the cruel punishment inflicted by defendants with culpable State of mind be sufficiently serious to pose a Constitutional violation. Detention beyond the termination of a Circuit Court original sentence order constitute cruel and unusual punishment and due process violations that substantial risk of serious harm exists and defendants official chose to do NOTHING to prevent harm from occurring and violating plaintiffs 8th and 14th amendment rights (see exhibit 1,2,3,4,5,6 7,8,9, )..
- (9.) Plaintiffs evidence sustained finding that Illinois Department of Corrections Chief Record Officer has responsibility to review inmates Circuit Courts sentencing orders and authority to direct release of plaintiffs whose sentence had been completely served and must be held liable for violations for Civil Right of plaintiffs who was held beyond the correct expiration of their sentence original imposed by the Illinois Circuit Court. (see exhibit 1,2, 3,4,5,6,7,8,9, )...

(10,) Plaintiffs claim the defendants Illinois Department of Correction Director Roger E. Walker jr. authorizes constitutionally inadequate State procedure for depriving plaintiffs of a protected interest and inmates is thereafter deprived of such liberty that defendants has subjected plaintiffs to a Due Process violation U.S.C.A. 14th . Plaintiffs has a liberty interest recognized by Federal and State law to be release accordingly of the trial Circuit Court original imposed sentence provisions of law..

(11.) Plaintiffs claims that the Illinois Department of Corrections defendants deprived the plaintiffs and caused the plaintiffs to be deprived of that 8th and 14th Constitutional Rights .

(12.) Plaintiffs claim a conflict of law to his original sentence order imposed by the Circuit Courts of negotiated plea,jury trial, Bench trial,and open plea Defendants violates plaintiffs concurrent sentence structure under Illinois Department of Corrections procedure of defendants provision applying parole/MSR term incorrectly onto plaintiffs set sentence.Constitutional law Federal and State that make plaintiffs claims valid involving statutory constitution which deprived plaintiffs of liberty,Due Process and cruel and unusual punishment constitutionally protected interest must be enforce (see exhibit 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9, ..)

V. Relief:

State briefly exactly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Cite no cases or statutes.

- (1) That the plaintiff on PAROLE/MSR outside of Illinois Dept. of Corr. imprisonment must be terminated to avoid UNLAWFUL incarceration.
- (2) That Plaintiffs be release from Illinois Dept. of Corr. physical imprisonment onto PAROLE/MSR as of the correct sentencing calculation to Illinois law provisions of Statute 730 ILCS 5/5-8-1 (d) be applied correctly .
- (3) That all plaintiffs within the Illinois Dept.of Corrections be issue a new Court order with the correct calculation of application to PAROLE/MSR term to be served within the Plaintiffs set sentence imposed by the original Circuit Court sentencing order of negotiated guilty plea, jury trial, Bench trial, and open plea.The following relief must be applied that the defendants will stop violating plaintiffs 8th and 14th Constitutional legal Rights.

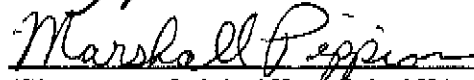

VI. The plaintiff demands that the case be tried by a jury. ☒ YES ☐ NO

REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS had at the hearing of the above-entitled cause, before the Honorable JAMES M. BAILEY, Judge of said court on the 29th day of April, A.D. 1981.

APPEARANCES:

Honorable RICHARD J. DALEY,
State's Attorney of Cook County, by
MR. RICHARD KAPLAN,
Assistant State's Attorney,
for the People of the State of Illinois;

MR. TOM REYNOLDS,

1 THE CLERK: Marshall Pippion.

2 MR. REYNOLDS: Your Honor, this
3 case was set for disposition today. We are 4 desirous of entering a plea of guilty to the 5 four indictments pending against our client
6 and we are ready to proceed now.

7 THE COURT: Is this correct, Mr.
8 Pappion?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

10 THE COURT: You understand by
11 pleading guilty at this time you are waiving
12 your right to either a trial by this court
13 or a trial by this court and a jury.
14 Understand that?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Your attorney here will
17 not be able to confront the State's
18 witnesses today by way of cross examination.
19 You will also not be able to bring any
20 witnesses to testify concerning the facts
21 and circumstances of the case. You
22 understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: We have had a

1 pre-sentence report?

2 MR. REYNOLDS: We have, you Honor.
3 Ask that it be made part of the record.

4 THE COURT: You understand due to 5 the charges contained in these cases I could
6 sentence you to what they call the death
7 penalty or I could give you up to 20 years
8 in the Illinois State Penitentiary because 9 of the nature and circumstances surrounding 10 the cases.

11 There is also a three year
12 period of what we call mandatory supervised
13 release thereafter and the minimum I could
14 give you would be 20 years. You understand
15 that?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: That is on the murder.
18 On the Class X, which is the armed robbery,
19 I could sentence you to the Illinois State
20 Penitentiary from 6 years and because of the 21 nature of the case and because of the 22 extenuating circumstances, I could sentence
23 you to the Illinois State Penitentiary on 24 the extended term up to 40 years with a

1 three year period of what they call
2 mandatory supervised release. That is what
3 I could give you.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: You understand at this
6 point nobody has threatneed you or promised
7 you anything to get you to plead guilty with 8 the exception of the preliminary discussion
9 we had on the pre-trial conference in which 10 I stated that if you plead guilty I was 11 going to sentence you to 60 years in the 12 Illinois State Penitentiary. Is that 13 correct?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: With a three year period
16 of what they call mandatory supervised
17 release thereafter. You understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

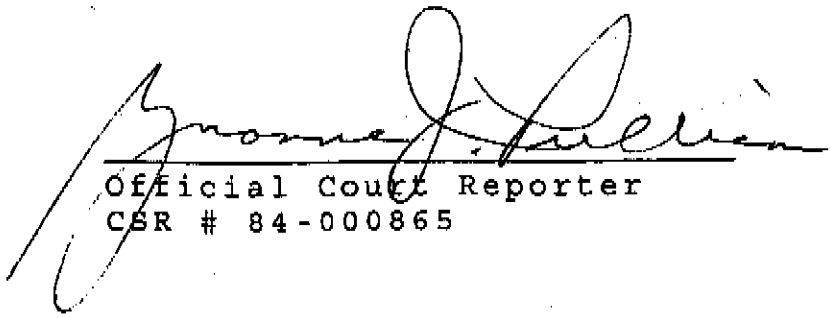

19 THE COURT: Nobody has promised you
20 anything or threatened you in any manner?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No.

22 THE COURT: You understand as I
23 told your attorney we have to go ahead and 24 have a hearing, the State is entitled to a

Charge: ATTEMPT MURDER

11 REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS
12

13 BE IT REMEMBERED that on the 7th day of May, 1981,
14 this cause came on for hearing before the HONORABLE JAMES M.
15 BAILEY, Judge of said Court, upon the indictment herein, the 16 defendant having entered a plea of not guilty.

17 APPEARANCES:

18 HONORABLE RICHARD J. DALEY,
19 State's Attorney of Cook County, by:
20 MR. RICHARD KAPLAN,
21 Assistant State's Attorney,
22 For the People of the State of Illinois;

23 MS. RITA L. FRYE,
24 Public Defender of Cook County, by:
25 MR. ROBERT LEE and MR. THOMAS REYNOLDS,
Assistant Public Defender,
For the Defendant Marshall Pippion.

1 Pippion from ever doing this again, and to send out a
2 message to the people and to the other criminals in this
3 community that we will not stand for it.

4 Thank you.

5 MR. LEE: Judge, if I may, just briefly. The Court
6 has already heard concerning Mr. Pippion's background, and 7 the facts and circumstances in this case, both by way of our 8 pretrial motions, and by way of stipulations. I rely 9 heavily upon what the Court has already heard in those 10 discussions of Mr. Pippion's background, the 2 prior 11 convictions resulting in, one, a misdemeanor probation, and 12 a felony probation for drugs is, in fact, void of any 13 violence, as far as acts against the community as 14 individuals, or in total.

15 I suggest to your Honor that his tender agency;
16 more importantly, his pleas before this Court wherein he 17 surrendered not just his innocence, wherein he surrendered
18 his freedom of voice for a substantial period of time, 19 because he was aware of discussions we had; the terms of our 20 pretrial decisions with the Court.

21 I suggest to your Honor that that sentence imposed
22 by the Court in the pretrial discussions is adequate to 23 provide protection for the State. It is the adequate for 24 the needs of society. I suggest, your Honor, that that

1 extensive period of time can do nothing, but protect society
2 in this case. That the alternative of taking yet another
3 life is not a viable alternative, due to the facts and 4 circumstances that you have before you.

5 I, certainly, do not challenge the needless
6 violence that occurred on that weekend in October. I
7 suppose what I do do is ask this Court to end that violence
8 today. I ask the Court to end that terror of that October 9 weekend; not to take another life. I ask that you abide by 10 the terms of our discussions prior to today.

11 THE COURT: All right. Does the defendant wish to 12 say anything in his own behalf? He has a right to say
13 anything he wishes at this time. He does not have to say
14 anything. Do you wish to say anything?

15 THE DEFENDANT: No.

* 16 THE COURT: I agree with the rhetoric, really, of 17 the State's Attorney's Office. Basically, the death
18 sentence in this case should be imposed. However, I believe
19 the Legislator has, basically, given forth the mandate to go
20 forward and do it. However, you have a problem in the State
21 of Illinois that is, basically, by the power of the Supreme 22 Court. The Supreme Court of the State of Illinois has gone
23 to extremely, great lengths to avoid giving the death
24 penalty that has come before them, since an act has been

*1 passed without -- passed without -- the act of the 2 Constitution to impose death penalty in this case will be
3 merely a jolt on death row, which I think would be 4 unrealistic, because based upon the -- in this period of 5 time; therefore, the defendant would probably never go to 6 the electric chair. He would be back here being sentenced 7 some time later, so to impose the death penalty would be 8 ridiculous, because of his background, which is kind of --
9 because of most defendants before us.

*10 One would say he caused great harm, and did a great 11 deal of crime in our community. His acts were very, very,*
12 very, very gruesome in nature, and indicative of wanton
13 cruelty.

*14 Based upon that and further discussions I had with 15 the defense here, and I have agreed to a plea of guilty, the 16 defendant shall be sentenced to the Illinois State
17 Penitentiary for a period of 60 years. That, basically, 18 would make this individual an old individual by the time he 19 got out of the penitentiary. I think that he will not be 20 young enough to roam in the streets and so forth. But still 21 at an agency whereby, hopefully, he might become a useful
22 citizen; but I am not looking forward to him being a useful
23 citizen. By the time he gets out he will be 60 something
*24 years old, even at the earliest. He could stay in longer.

1 He could even die in the period of time. So based upon
2 that, that will be the order.

3 MR. KAPLAN: Judge, is that is on the all cases
4 that he pled guilty to, 60 years on everything?

5 THE COURT: I have also found extenuating ~~*~~
6 circumstances for the imposition of the extended term on the 7 armed robbery charges, and a Class X felony, which are 8 contained in the other charges; therefore, 60 years would be 9 on each one of them, which will run, of course, concurrent.

10 MR. KAPLAN: Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Mittimus to issue. Further, tell him,
12 you have 30 days from today, if he wishes to file a notice
13 of appeal; motion to attack his plea of guilty, as far as 14 this case is concerned. If you failed to do so, you will be 15 forever barred from attempting to withdraw your plea of 16 guilty. In other words, beyond 30 days you may not be able 17 to file a notice of appeal.

18 If you are not able to pay for a copy of the 19 written transcript, a written transcript, as well as an 20 attorney will be provided to you free of charge. Do you
21 understand that, sir?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh.

23 THE COURT: What else do we have? For the sake of 24 the record, we are going to stay the mittimus until 5-21.
